OUTING OF THE HIKERS ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Two Parties on Walk Between Cabin John Bridge and Chevy Chase Lake.

With L. W. York, John Boyle Jr., and F. C. Merritt as leaders, thirty-two wanderers were out yesterday morning and 119 in the afternoon. It was the third trip between Cabin John Bridge and Chevy Chase Lake by the Hikers and yet entirely different from the other two. The "official" account follows:

"The fog of the morning proved the forerunner of a perfect afternoon. Some two miles from the starting point the little hamlet of Concord was passed and thence through the Le Ferre estate and John Perry's property, and along by the small stream where the watercress grows.

"We kept to the woods between the Conduit road and Cabin John, skirting a field at intervals to furnish some pretty landscape views and give added variety to the walk. Thence a walk of nearly a mile along the Conduit road or Wilson lane, passing Hugh Reilly's country home and to one of the headwaters of Cabin John run on the line of the new Great Falls electric railway, where a camp fire was made and the crowd soon made themselves at home on inviting logs grouped around the fire.

Where Leader Gambles Excels.

"There was some competition as to how many 'dogs' one could roast at once but Leader Gambles soon showed the rest it was not use to compete. The day also happened to be the birthday anniversary of Leader Rosson and several appropriate remarks were made by different hikers.

In addition to lunch, which was brought by the individuals, hot coffee was obtained from Scot Hill's camp nearby, together with corn bread, pie and a limited helping of fried chicken, so that the idea of Thanksgiving dinner was not lost sight of by any means. As a dessert, marshmallows were roasted.

"A walk of perhaps two miles, in which the leaders tried to lose us by describing circles in the woods, brought us out at Beck station on the Rockville line, where, after a short wait, the afternoon crowd joined the others, fresh from the city and with the usual good feeling that a Thanksgiving dinner gives to one after a little rest.

Afternoon Walk.

"The afternoon walk included some four miles, principally along country roads. From Beck station a new trail through the woods to avoid the road walking had been prepared by Leader York while the crowd was waiting for a second installment of hikers from the city. From Alta Vista station a cross road, passing the Foundling Country Home, was followed to the Rockville turnpike, thence south almost to another ravine, from which point a country road to the left and northeast was taken to the Columbia Country Club grounds, which we crossed and from thence proceeded to the lake, finishing about 6 o'clock.

Next Sunday the start is to be made from Glen Echo Park, returning to Cabin John Bridge. The leaders are to be W. Palmer Hall and George S. Rosson. The towpath of the canal will be followed to Crofton, where the roadway goes underneath, thence along by the Conduit road to Cabin John, which will be reached by 6 o'clock or earlier.

FINDS CONDITIONS GOOD ON VISIT TO OCCOQUAN

Senator Works Inspects Workhouse and Declares It an Efficient and Sanitary Institution.

The District workhouse, at Occoquan, Va., is an efficient and sanitary institution, in the opinion of Senator Works of California, who made a tour of inspection through the reservation Wednesday. Senator Works is a member of the joint select committee of Congress charged with the duty of reporting to Congress on the fiscal relations between the United States and the District. His visit to Occoquan was made in connection with his work on the committee, and he plans to visit many of the government institutions in Washington, including the engine houses, the police stations and the hospitals. Senator Works was accompanied on his trip to Occoquan by John Joy Edson, president of the board of charities, and George M. Wilson, secretary of the board.

"The institution at Occoquan was one of the bright spots," said Senator Works today. He is of the opinion that the federal government has not done enough for the District of Columbia under the existing half-and-half plan, and he believes that there are many "dark spots," such as the Washington Asylum Hospital and the alley slums, which should be done away with.

Will Explain in Report.

He intends to give his reasons for this belief in his report, upon which he is now at work. Unlike some members of Congress, who have insisted that the federal government has been too generous to the District, Senator Works has asserted many times during the present investigation by the joint select committee that he believes the government should do far more for the National Capital. For this reason he has advocated a plan whereby the federal government shall pay all the expenses of the government and the citizens of the District pay a reasonable tax into the federal Treasury.

Sensor Works said that he had found the workhouse well run, and that the system there seemed to be admirable for handling prisoners accused of petty offenses and sentenced to short-term imprisonment. The buildings, he said, were light and airy, the prisoners are kept in the open air all day, doing a good day's work.

"The place is all open and prisoners could escape, I presume, if they made the attempt," said Senator Works, "but the system seems to be efficient, and I am told there are very few attempts to escape from the workhouse nowadays." The joint select committee will meet Monday at 10 o'clock, Senator Works said today. He added that so much time had been lost by the committee that he feared the committee would have a hard time getting its report ready for Congress by January 1, the date set by law by which the report must be submitted. While the committee has completed taking testimony, it has not yet had a meeting for the purpose of considering that testimony and beginning work on its report.

Gives Masked Ball and Musical.

The Sacred Heart Dramatic Association of Sacred Heart parish, Mount Pleasant, ushered in its social season last night, when members were hosts at a masked ball and musical given in the ballroom in the arcade. Members of the executive board of the association decided to produce in February a musical "surprise." Plans were made for a musical, Messrs. Arthur Carroll, William Killebane, Hugh Fagan, Frank Duchesne, John Ryan, William Madigan, and Misses Louise Rochon, Mary Coleman and Anna Brennan are on the executive committee.

CHINA ASKED TO ENTER THE ENTENTE ALLIANCE

Proposition Apparently Favored by Press—Attitude of Japan Regarded as Barrier.

PEKING, November 26.—The question of the re-establishment of a monarchic form of government in China has been overshadowed for the time being by the discussion of the proposal that China enter the entente alliance, which is attracting wide attention. The Chinese press in general seems to be inclined favorably toward the proposal and regards the attitude of Japan as the principal barrier which might be interposed.

The newspapers take the view that if Japan secures the invitation of her allies China could not refuse to enter the entente. The Japanese minister, Eki Hiroki, declines to discuss the position of his government.

Effort to Discern Japan's Attitude.

The Chinese public is following editorial in the Japanese newspapers in an effort to discern from them the probable attitude at Tokyo. An editorial reprinted from the Mainichi Shinbun of Osaka, Japan, by the Peking Gazette today, says:

"China is a life and death problem to Japan. Japan should be absolutely free and independent so far as concerns her relations with China. Japan should not for a moment lose her standing as the guardian of peace in the far east."

Swallows Poison by Mistake.

A man giving his name as George Gurr, his age as thirty-four years and his address as 437 Connecticut street, Buffalo, N. Y., visited the Emergency Hospital last night and told the physicians that he had taken poison by mistake. He said he had used some tablets in a bottle which he had mistaken for a quantity of the preparation. He was treated and detained at the hospital.

The search for the body of Dwight F. Mallory was continued without success. The search will be continued today.

JAPAN'S RULER VISITS TOMBS OF ANCESTORS

Emperor Yoshihito Announces to the Spirits of His Predecessors His Accession.

KIOTO, November 26.—Accompanied by the whole court Emperor Yoshihito left here this morning for Imugamomura in the suburbs of Kioto to visit the mausolea of the Emperors Kokaku, Ninko and Komei. This was to permit the emperor to pay his respects and formally announce the conclusion of the accession to the spirits of several of his imperial predecessors as he had done previously before the mausolea of Emperor Jimmu and Emperor Mutsuhito.

Emperor Kokaku was the great grandfather of the late Emperor Mutsuhito, Emperor Ninko the grandfather and Emperor Komei the father of Emperor Mutsuhito. The tombs of those emperors are at the same place in a peaceful hamlet named Inugamomura. The ceremony conducted before the mausolea was the same as at the mausolea of Emperors Jimmu and Mutsuhito.

After finishing his worship the emperor and the imperial retinue returned to the imperial palace here this afternoon.

Emperor Yoshihito, proceeded yesterday to Fushimi to pay homage before the mausoleum of the late Emperor Mutsuhito, at Momoyama. The emperor and court journeyed to Fushimi by a special train from Kioto station, where huge welcoming crowds collected.

Only two years have elapsed since the remains of the late sovereign were interred at Momoyama, and but one year later Empress Haruko, his consort, followed her husband and was buried beside him. The mausoleum of Emperor Mutsuhito is known as the Momoyama mausoleum and that of the late empress as the eastern mausoleum of Momoyama. The place is situated on a wooded hillside and is a very lovely country, and the mausolea are on the

MISSIONARY IS FORCED TO LEAVE ASIA MINOR

Conditions So Intolerable, Rev. Dr. Chambers Says, He Brought Out Women and Children.

NEW YORK, November 26.—Rev. Dr. William N. Chambers, who has been doing missionary work in Asia Minor for thirty years; his wife and a number of women and children from the mission at Adana, Asia Minor, arrived today on the Greek steamer Themistocles. Dr. Chambers said conditions in Asia Minor became so intolerable that he was forced to bring out all of the women and children.

One of the party said Dr. Chambers had been held in jail two days because he was a British subject, but that an American consul succeeded in having him released. Dr. Chambers said large numbers of Armenians have been deported from near Adana and other places in Asia Minor. Besides Mrs. Chambers, who is a sister of Talbot Williams, dean of the Columbia School of Journalism, the party included Mrs. Cyril H. Haas and her four children; Mrs. William L. Nute and her son, Miss Mary C. Nute and Miss Lila Khyatt.

Mrs. Elizabeth Yachjian, an Armenian, who arrived in the steamer, said she had taken her daughter from their home at Adabazar, Turkey, to France, and from there sent her to Philadelphia, where she is now at school. Turkish authorities would not allow Mrs. Yachjian to return to Adabazar, and when she heard a report that her husband and son had been deported to the Assyrian desert she decided to join her daughter at Philadelphia.

Alexander H. Rutherford, for many years in the tobacco and banking business in Baltimore, died at his home, Oak Hill, near Fells Point, Md., Va. He was sixty-four years old. He had been making his home at Oak Hill for two years. He was born in Richmond, Va., and was the son of Alexander H. Rutherford.

Why all this fuss about Chewing Gum?

"Couldn't you save money on flavoring, for instance, and still give an excellent Gum?"

Yes, so we could. But you should understand at the start that Sterling Gum set out to establish a new standard in chewing gums. To accomplish this, the flavor must be both more delicious and more lasting. Hence:

Point No. 1—Crowded with flavor.

"Well, then, is all this repeated refining really necessary?"

Of course, no chewing gum is always gritty. But we want a gum which is never gritty. You can chew Sterling Gum month in and month out without striking grit in a single stick. This simple fact is expressed in Point No. 2—Velvety body—NO GRIT.

"How does Sterling Gum keep?"

We have taken great pains to produce a gum which would hold its freshness under extremes of heat, cold and humidity. The result is:

Point No. 3—Crumble-proof.

"At that rate you're a little on the order then of pure-food cranks?"

Yes. It is a matter of record that the highest grades of chicle, flavors and other materials come to us. We even pulverize our own sugar right in our own sunny kitchens. There is a real purity effort back of Point No. 4—Sterling purity.

"You speak of 'sunny' kitchens'. Any particular point there?"

Indeed yes! The Sterling Factory is a model gum factory. Its four walls are literally sparkling with broad, high windows. All day long the light streams through into spotless surroundings. Hence:

Point No. 5—From a daylight factory.

"Do the help live up to their surroundings?"

Yes. Each employe wears a clean uniform and cap. Each morning we supply him with fresh-laundered, snow-white gloves. That is how we accomplish:

Point No. 6—Untouched by hands.

"That IS interesting. Now, what is Point 7?"

Point 7? That is in the gum. You will find it there. Later on we will offer suitable rewards for the discovery of Point 7. But now we simply present it to you this way:
